THE NECESSARY DISCLAIMER & TERMS

Bookings and Payment

All our prices are per person and subject to VAT at the current rate. All prices include disposable, eco-friendly plates, cutlery and napkins. Upon agreement on the package and prices, we require 20% non-refundable deposit based on initial numbers to secure the booking. Final payment, choices and dietary requirements are required latest 72 hours prior to the event or 7 days prior to events with 50 guests and above. Our prices include all consultations, menu design, preparation and set up.

Delivery

We cover all of Cumbria and Lancashire however depending on distance a travel charge may apply.

We are responsible to list all pricing up front.

Tailored packages are also available on request.

Set Up

All cold buffets are set up on disposable trays with clear lids to ensure freshness. Grazing board set up depending on the number of guests and the package may occur with extra charge.

Hot buffets are set up in heatproof dishes or chafing dishes depending on the event.

Ingredients

We use fresh and local produce from various suppliers, however we reserve the right to substitute any listed ingredient with the closest alternative in the same price range in case it is not available.

Your responsibilities

Our clients are responsible to pay on time and to ensure the venue is suitable for catering. If a venue is booked by the client, it is their responsibility to ensure suitable kitchen facilities, electricity and running water is provided.

Cancellation

All deposits paid are non-refundable. Deposit can be transferable as long as a suitable date is agreed by both the client and Knife & Sole Ltd.

Cancellations within 72 hours require full payment. All weddings and private events above 50 guests require full payment within 7 days of the event. Cancellation within this period requires full payment.

Data & Privacy

Knife & Sole Ltd is responsible for keeping all data confidential. To create social media content and insurance purposes we may take photographs or video footage of our set up. Guests or personal moments or details will not be shared without prior consent.

We may use pictures or video footage of our set up only to create social media content.
